PRESS RELEASE

DATE: February 18, 2016

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Carroll County Artists Guild at Hampstead Town Hall

The Carroll County Artists Guild will be displaying artwork from three of their members at the Hampstead Town Hall (1034 S. Carroll Street, Hampstead) from March 1st to June 1st, 2016. The artwork may be viewed from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Admission is free.

The three artists are Jim Spies, Ray Hartland and Barbara Schnell. They all have many years of experience in creating outstanding artwork and have received numerous awards at local and State art shows. On display will be a variety of oil, acrylic and watercolor creations reflecting their experiences in Carroll County and beyond.

The Carroll County Artists Guild is a non-profit arts organization for adult artists and individuals interested in art. It is dedicated to supporting members' efforts, creating educational and social events, providing opportunities for exhibitions and sales and helping publicize the work of members. The Guild encourages creativity and recognizes excellence through a program of art shows and by conducting seminars, workshops and hosting lectures by professional artists and educators. The Guild is an alliance member of the Carroll County Arts Council.

Stop in at Town Hall and see the Artists Guild show for yourself!
